and the Staten Island Historical Society

Jacques Cortelyou
Known as "The Surveyor" emigrated to America about 1652 and died 1693. The name of his wife, who died before him, is not known. He came over as a private tutor of the children of Mr. Cornelius Van Werckhoven and he was one of the first settlers of Utrecht. He owned and occupied the Nyack Tract on the west end of Long Is.

Jacques Cortelyou
Born about 1662. He married Henarick Smock. He resided on part of the Nyack Tract. A part of the Long Island and nearly all of the New Jersey Cortelyous descended from him.

Peter Cortelyou
Born about 1664, died 4 - 10 - 1737. He married Diwertje de Witt (Deborah) He resided on a part of the Nyack Tract and he was a surveyor.

Cornelius Cortelyou
Died before 1690 and prior to the death of his father. He married Neiltje Volckers. His daughter Annetje married Isaac Liquier. He had no sons.

Helena Cortelyou
Married Rutgers van Brunt: from them descended a part of the Van Brunt family of Long Island. She married (2nd) Deonys Thunisson; from the Denyse family descended.

Maria Cortelyou
Married William Barkald: from them - the Long Island Barkolds descended.

William Cortelyou
One William Cortelyou took the Oath of Allegiance in 1687. Probably he was a son of Jacques Cortelyou, but he must have died before his father as his name does not appear in the settlement of the estate of Jacques Cortelyou.

Neltje Cortelyou
Born 1694. Died young

Jacques Cortelyou
Born about 1698 - died 1757. Married Jacomyntje Van Pelt. Resided on part of the Nyack Tract. A part of the Long Island Cortelyous are descended from them.

Cortelyou, Peter

This Bible was published by William W. Harding at Philadelphia 1868. No indication as to whom it belonged. No name on fly leaf

It does not say who compiled these notes, but as the last item is made in a different handwriting, we think probably Catherine Ann Simonson wife of Isreal DuPuy has done the rest of the work

The following notes are made on sheets of paper, not in the original binding, but fastened in. (no dates)

Printers to the King's most Excellent Majesty 1806 pasted on the back of the front cover is a piece of paper-reads as follows 236 years - 1673 - 1909 ancestors traced

between the front cover and the dedication page, a letter has been pasted in, written on notebook paper: exact copy given here.

My dear Nephew, in Giving you this familee Relic, I hope you will treasure it as I have done, if I had any male line in my familee I would not want it to go out of it. I can trust it with my Brothers Children, the reccord is not as complete as I would like, a good deal of the record was so worn I could hardly make it out.
My Father's familee, I have to go a good deal on memory and eccepting my own Birth witch is right, the rest of my Brothers, I am right in the year but not in the mos. or das. of mo. You will notice your Great-great-grandmother, Anna Mackey who was born in 1740 and died in 1825 is as far back as I can find that reaches one hundred and fifty years. I see in Clutes History of Staten Island the name goes back to 1676. Your Great-great-grandfather's name is mentioned there. I cant place no others.
Now, this venerable Bible has been in the state of Wisconsin fifteen and a half years, in the state of Mississippi one and a half year, and the state of Iowa nineteen years and inthe Territory and State of South Dakota six years, and away from Staten Island N. Y. forty-two years the first of last April.
(1890 inserted in pencil) If the past could speake what great changes in the living since then. If this Bible could tell its story - O, the Sad and Sorrowfull Partings in familee and Home death has claimed about all of them except your generation. I have had this familee Relick so long I shall miss it. 33 years next fall since your grandfather gave it to me, and if you keep it as good as I have done it will last a thousand years in the Coming Generations of the familee. Keep it in the male line of the Houseman familee between you and Arthur is all I reguire I remain your affectionate uncle Anthony Houseman to his Nephew
. H. Houseman
West New Brighton, S. I.

Notes written in pencil on a quarter-size piece of paper which was pasted on a sheet of notebook paper. This in turn was pasted to one of the pages of the Bible. No explanation given as to its connection with the Houseman family.
